HUNS EXTORT CASH

Twelve Cases in Brussels, One Bank Being Robbed.

Brussels, Nov. 19.—M. Lemonnier, the acting burgomaster of Brussels, has written the delegates of the German government giving details of twelve instances where German soldiers extorted sums of money from the inhabitants of Brussels November 12 and 13. (The armistice signed November 11 expressly prohibited such action.)

The sums taken varied from 500 francs to 110,000 marks, which were taken from a bank. In some cases the pretense was made that the soldiers were acting for the German authorities; in others that shots had been fired from houses by civilians.

"The calumnious imputations," adds the letter, "recall the pretexts which preceded the destruction of Louvain."

Washington, No. 19.—German troops destroyed the railway station at Assache, near Brussels, 24 hours after the armitice became effective, French diplomatic cable stated yesterday. Four were killed and fifty wounded. Germans are expected to say the explosion was accidental, but the burgomaster has testimony indicating that the explosion was set off by wires running some distance from the station.

DISORDER IN KENTUCKY

Alexandria, Ky., Nov. 19.—A small sized civil war broke out in the courthouse at Alexandria, Ky., yesterday, several men of alleged German extraction taking exception to solicitation by United War Work campaigners. Chairs were hurled at the speakers and a panic ensued, during which several persons leaped out of windows. Recently a similar demonstration took kplace, several persons being tied to trees and whipped. The Council of Defense has begun an investigation.

RUBEN FREE IN ROY CASE

Convict Who Confessed to Murder of Eva Roy Acquitted—Will be Witness in Trial of Lou Hall Monday.

Ben Rubin, the escaped convict, who confessed to the murder of little Eva Roy and later retracted his confession, was tried and acquitted yesterday afternoon for the crime.

The Fairfax County jurymen trying the case were convinced that Rubin had confessed to escape serving a six-year term in the District Reformatory. The man, however, had been indicted for the murder by a Fairfax grand jury, and the formality of a trial was necessary before he could be released to the local authorities.

Rubin confessed to the murder after his capture by the Washington police, but was unable to convince the authorities of the truth of his statements, when taken to the scene of the crime. After his indictment he escaped from the Fairfax jail and returned to Washington, where two days later he was recaptured by the local police. After his brief trial he was returned to the reformatory at Lorton.

Walter Oliver, attorney for Lou Hall, the woodcutter, indicted also for the murder of the child, has summoned Rubin to appear as a witness in Hall's trial when it starts next Monday. It is Mr. Oliver's opinion that Rubin will be able to convince the jury that Hall could not have been connected with the crime.

The evidence against Hall upon which the Commonwealth will base its case is understood to be entirely circumstantial. Since his arrest the day after the little girl's body was found in the woods near Burke Station, Hall and his friends have maintained that he knew nothing of the murder.

HUN FLEET

British Await News of Surrender of German Navy.

London, Nov. 19.—Great Britain today awaits breathlessly for news from "somewhere in the North Sea" where a powerful German surface fleet, the bulk and pride of the German navy, was scheduled to surrender. King George and the Prince of Wales went to Admiral Sir David Beatty's flagship to witness the greatest naval display in history.

It is expected that all German ships will be in allied hands by Saturday, a day earlier than the armistice specified.

The German ships, it is learned will be divided among the allies. Great Britain, having done the bulk of the naval work in the war, is to receive the lion's share of the surrendering fleet.

CONRAD WILL CASE SETTLED

Widow of Former Solicitor-General of U. S. Sole Beneficiary.

Winchester, Va., Nov 19.—The Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals has handed down a decision affirming the opinion of Judge Frank B. Whiting, of the Corporation Court of Winchester, in the case of Holmes Conrad, Jr., against Mrs. Georgie Bryan Conrad, executrix of Major Holmes Conrad. The case was that involving the construction of the will of the late Major Conrad, former Solicitor-General of the United States. Holmes Conrad, Jr., contended that the children were the beneficiaries under the will, but the court decided that Mrs. Conrad was the sole beneficiary, with the exception as to the home property.

The Supreme Court also approved the compromise settlement made by Mrs. Conrad with the Virginia Debt Commission fixing the amount of Major Conrad's fee, by which Major Conrad's estate received $150,000 and Mrs. Conrad an annunity of $2,500 during her life. Major Conrad was counsel for Brown Bros. of New York, representing the bondholders.

FIRE AT BOAT CLUB

Club House of Old Dominion Gutted By Fire And Most of Its Boats Destroyed—Blaze the Work of "Fire Bug."

Fire supposed to have been of incendiary origin at 6:40 o'clock last night gutted the club house of the Old Dominion Boat Club on the river front between Prince and Duke streets and destroyed most of its boats.

It is believed that the loss to the house together with boats and contents will be in the neighborhood of $6,000. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

Eighteen boats including canoes, outriggers and racing shells were either completely destroyed or badly damaged. Seven canoes were saved.

The fire was discovered by Leo Bowling, a clerk employed by the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Club. He turned in an alarm and in short order the fire department was on the scene. Very effective work was done by the motor engine.

The fire started in the rear end in the northwest corner of the building, near some oil cans and quicly made its way to the second floor where a number of lockers and other paraphernalia of the club was destroyed. The fire, however, did not reach the east end of the second floor.

The Old Dominion Boat Club will make plans for rebuilding just as soon as the insurance can be adjusted and its members will have everything in readiness for the spring. In the meantime the members of the club, many of whom are now in the army, will purchase boats to take the place of those destroyed.

WALK-OUT IN NORFOLK

With the exception of the civil service men employed at the Norfolk Navy Yard, all sheet metal workers on government and other jobs in this section walked out yesterday morning. About 500 men were out last night. Practically all work of this class has been suspended.

The men claim that the cutting out of overtime, and the holding of their pay to 75 cents an hour is a virtual cut in wages. They declared that heretofore the government had given 12 hours' pay for 10 hours' work. Now they are receiving regular pay for eight hours' work. Government officials declared that they are not involved in the present flight.

TO HEAD DELEGATES

President Wilson will head this country's delegation to the peace conference. He expects to sail for France a day or two after December 2, the opening of the regular session of Congress. This was officially announced yesterday at the White House. Mrs. Wilson will accompany the party.

SERVICES AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

A large congregation last night attended the evangelistic servies at the First Baptist Church and heard an interesting sermon delivered by Rev. Dr. Cecil V. Cook, Charlottesville, Va., who is assisting Rev. Dr. Jackson, pastor, in conducting the services this week. His subject was "Faith."

Beginning this afternoon services will be held every afternoon during the week at 3:30 o'clock. The song and prayer services each evening will be held at 7:45 o'clock.

RICHMOND THEATRE

"Queen of Hearts," will be the attraction at the Richmond tonight.

In the big William Fox production, Virginia Pearson is presented in the most tremendous drama of sudden death, deep mystery, and clever discovery ever shown on the screen—the greatest detective story of a generation! DRAFT BOARD'S WORK

Classification of Men Under 19 Only Work Remaining.

A new order by Provost Marshal General Crowder issued yesterday to the draft boards of the country suspends indefinitely all physical examinations or draft registrants, and in effect serves notice that the government likelihood that men ready to serve will ever be called.

The only work which remains to be done by draft boards now is the classification of those men who were 18 years old and less than 19 years of age on September 12 last. The classification of these men will be carried out, as it is assumed that their records will be of greatest value to the military establishment of the country in the future.

The men of the 18-year-old class will not undergo physical examination unless additional quotas are needed by the army. In any event they would be the last called, and there is little serious thought given to such a possibility in army circles here.

THREE DROWN IN DITCH

Narrow Escape of Two Others When Auto Overturns Near Leipsic, Ohio.

Leipsic, O., Nov. 19.—Three persons were drowned and two others narrowly escaped when their automobile overturned into a ditch filled with water from rains of the last few days, near here yesterday afternoon The dead are:

Mrs. Sarah Yeisley, 70 years old.
Mrs. I. P. Yeisley, 36 years old.
Phyllis, 10 years old, daughter of Mrs. I. P. Yeisley.

Those who escaped were I. P. Yeisley and his 19 year old daughter, Bertha. All were of Port Clinton.

I. P. Yeisley was driving the car Bertha was in the front seat with him. With one foot held under the wreckage, Yeisley used the other on the electric horn and attracted a farmer, who rescued the survivors.

CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

In the district Federal court at Norfolk yesterday true bills were returned against Karl Hoffman, Rowland E. Darling and W. L. Whitehurst, charging conspiracy to defraud the government by paddling the pay rolls at the army engineering depot.

Walter S. Fleming, arrested some time ago on the charge of attempting to defraud the government by representing a padded pay roll for payment, was found guilty. Judge Waddill deferred sentence.

GOMPERS RECOMMENDED

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was recommended as the representative of American labor at the peace conference in a message sent to Washington yesterday by the executive council of the federation, which is in session in San Antonio, Texas.

GRAND THEATRE

Cupid has an unusual and up-to-date aid in a vaccum cleaner. How this happens is seen in the clever Metro comedy-drama, "A Successful Adventure," will be shown at the Grand tomorrow and in which beautiful May Allison is starred. June Mathis is the author of the play, which was directed by Harry Franklin.

But to get back to the vacuum cleaner—it is as yet the most novel aid in the long list in cupid's employ, and causes many hearty laughs in this scintillating production.

Ambassador James W. Gerard's, "My Four Years in Germany," will be shown Thursday and Friday. There will be a matinee each day at 2 o'clock.

POLAND TO BE INDEPENDENT

Senator Lodge of Massachusetts presented a resolution in the Senate yesterday to support the demand for the establishment of a free and independent state of Poland. He said there was "an underground movement" in this country and abroad to keep the Polish people from enjoying the full fruits of victory and to establish them as a state under the domination of a German or Austrian prince.

HUNS ARE PLOTTING

Lord Robert Cecil Believes They Intend to Form a Confederation Embracing 94,033,293 for Another War.

London, Nov. 19.—That the Germans are plotting to form a federation with a population of 94,033,293 and with the former Kaiser at the head of it, is the opinion of Lord Robert Cecil and other prominent British statesmen. This view is widely circulated by the press with big headlines today.

The plan, it is said, is to unite the German populations of Germany, German Austria, Holland, Switzerland, and Sweden, thus sowing the seeds for another war.

A German-inspired revolution for this purpose is reported to be brewing in Holland, Switzerland, and Sweden.

The former Kaiser is said to be behind Chancellor Ebert, former Chancellor Max, and Field Marshal von Hindenburg. It is pointed out in this connection that the former warlord has never signed a formal decree of abdication nor a valedictory message to Germany and that he evidently hopes to return soon.

THANKSGIVING DAY

A Proclamation by the Governor of Virginia.

Whereas, In this hour of hope fulfilled, while millions hail as the preserver and guarantor of human liberty these United States of America whose ideals and aspirations militant have made autocratic government throughout the world impossible; and

Whereas: In this ausicious time we voice in a spirit of exaltation the pride that comes of duty nobly done; and

Whereas, There is a Higher Power than human, transcending and guiding All, before whom all should bend in adoration; now

Therefore, I, Westmoreland Davis Governor of Virginia, do proclaim Thursday, November 28, 1918, a public holiday to be observed as a day of Thanksgiving to gather on that day in their usual places for Divine worship and there give thanks to the Almighty for the victories that we and our allies have won, for the heroism of our sons and for the attainment of those great ends for which we have fought—peace, progress and prosperity for the world.

Given under my hand, and under the Lesser Seal of the Commonwealth, at Richmond, this fourteenth day of November, in year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and in the one hundred and forty-third year of the Commonwealth.

Westmoreland Davis, Governor.

ALMOST A LAW

The bone-dry prohibition measure now needs only the signature of the President to make it effective, thereby stopping all manufacture and sale of intoxicants after the first of next July until the last of the American troops are demobilized. This situation was made possible when the Senate yesterday receded from the rent profiteering amendment which had held up the food stimulation bill to which the bone-dry measure was attached as a rider. Without a roll call the Senate agreed to drop the rent amendment and adopted the conference report on the bill which has been held in conference for several weeks.

By his devoted wife and baby.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for their kindness upon the death of my husband, Linwood Kidwell, and for their beautiful floral tributes.

WILL TRY "FATHER" ARMAND

Head of the "Tribe of Israel" Will Face Fairfax Court.

"Father" Armand, head of the Tribe of Israel," in Fairfax county will be tried today in the circuit court on a serious charge, brought against him by Mrs. Phillips, a member of the "tribe." The charge is commonly referred to in the county as the time when "Father" Armand "borrowed" the wife of another member of the tribe.

From those acquainted with the rules of the "Farm of Israel" and from evidence submitted at the preliminary hearing, "borrowing" a wife was a custom of the "Father" of the tribe. At the particular instance cited in the indictment, permission had not been granted by the husband and the warrant against Armand resulted.

Armand is the owner of a large tract of land known as the Berkley place but called the "Farm of Israel" by the citizens of Fairfax county. He and several members of the flock lived in perfect fellowship for several years. He claims to have "cast out" Mrs. Phillips and her husband because of irreverence and that the charge was then made against him.

BLIND, HE DIVES TO DEATH

Sightless Man, Tired of Poverty, Makes Spectacular Suicide.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 19.—Blinded by a mine accident several years before compensation legislation had been enacted, Frank Stincavage, poor and friendless, preferred death to poverty, and yesterday committed suicide by making a spectacular plunge from Market street bridge into the Susquehanna River.

For some months Stincavage had depended upon the charity of friends who alternated in giving him a home. Tiring of this existence he induced a 9-year-old boy to lead him to the bridge. There he released his hold on the boy's arm, felt his way to the pier edge and hurled himself into the stream, falling 60 feet to the water.

TERMS TO THE HUNS

There are some people in the United States who are inclined to believe the allies terms to the vanquished Teuton nation are rather severe. We think if such would closely study the situation they will be convinced that there is but one way to deal with brute force, and that the entente is pursuing the proper course towards their enemies. Their fangs must be extracted, and that is all of it.

The question, What would have been our fate had Germany won? is pertinent. The Philadelphia Record in speaking on these lines says if there are any persons outside of Germany who think that the armistice terms framed by the Allies for the vanquished are unnecessarily harsh it may be well to remind them that, in comparison with what Germany would have demanded if victorious, they are mild indeed. Only as late as June 30, when the German offensive was still in full swing, the cry of the Junkers and Pan-Germans was that there must be no armistice until Paris was occupied and the British driven from France. If the Allies acted in this spirit they would insist on the occupation of Berlin before consenting to talk of peace. They, however, propose no such humiliation for their foe, though they could easily drive his demoralized armies back to the Prussian capital if they cared to. In the final terms to be agreed upon Germany will be forced to give up Alsace-Lorraine (already lost to her); Schleswig, whose Danish inhabitants have proclaimed their province a republic, and that part of East Prussia which was sliced from Poland more than a century ago. Germany has no moral right to these territories, which were acquired by conquest, and no injustice will be done to her if she is compelled to give them up.

In comparison with this program, which cannot be called unfair, examine the plans of the Pan-Germans only four months ago, as formulated by Count von Roon, son of that Prussian Minister of War who co-operated so enthusiastically with Bismarck and von Moltke in building up the war machine which has brought such woe upon the world:

"German annexation of Belgium and the Channel coast to the south of Calais; annexation of the Briey-Longuy iron region, annexation of Belfort, Toul and Verdun and all French territory east of these forts.

"Restitution to Germany of all her colonies, including Kiao-Chou.

"Great Britain to cede to Germany such naval bases and coaling stations as Germany might designate; Great Britain to return Gibraltar to Spain, to surrender its naval fleets to Germany, to restore Egypt and the Suez Canal to Turkey.

"Greece to be re-established under King Constantine, with frontiers as before the war.

"Austria and Bulgaria to divide Servia and Montenegro.

"Great Britain, France and the United States to pay all of Germany's war costs, the indemnity being a minimum of $45,000,000,000. They also to be forced to deliver raw materials to Germany according to dictation.

"Occupation of France and Belgium by German armies until all these conditions are met, the costs of occupation to be borne by the enemy."

Germany will have to pay dearly for her crimes. But the penalties will be gentle in comparison with those she would have imposed in her brutal and ruthless fashion, if fortune had favored her arms.

MENACE OF BOLSHEVISM

"There is a probability of extensive disorders throughout Europe and we must stand on guard until everything is settled," said Colonel Winston Spencer Churchill, British munitions minister, on Sunday. 'We may need to maintain considerable armies for a long period," he continued. "Demobilization will not be rapid. The munitions firms everywhere will carry on until further orders. The amistice may lead through many thorny paths, and there will be many months of discussion before final peace is signed."

The tide of Bolshevism that threatened to flood all of the Euroean neutrals appears to have been stemmed, for the time being at least.

In Holland the government's prompt expulsion of all Bolshevist representatives and agents nipped in the bud the plot of the "reds" to incense the populace against Queen Wilhelmina.

In Sweden the democratic King Gustav took the dilemma by both horns, courageously faced the music of the radicals and told his people that if they wanted a republic and proved this will by a majority vote they could have it. A general democratization of the Swedish suffrage and governmental systems is now under way.

Switzerland, for many months a hot bed of anarchist plotting, refuge of terrorists from European lands, overcame the menace by prompt and energetic steps against the plotters.

In Denmark the situation is still obscure, but there seems no danger of a serious outbreak. Norway has been little affected by the "red wave."

The latest country to appear in the news as a fertile ground for Bolshevism is Spain, but there, too, the danger seems temporarily averted.

The situation in all these countries, it is agreed, depends mainly upon what conditions the aproaching winter will bring forth. The food shortage is intense everywhere. To America the sane and moderate elements of the whole of Euroe look as the saving angel from anarchy and civil strife.

THE CASE OF THE KAISER

A Washington paper recently invited answers to the question "What would you do to or with the Kaiser? Five dollars was offered as a prize for the most acceptable answer. Many suggestions were sent in, and the editor of the paper has announced that the following is the best of all. All who have read Hawthrone's "Scarlet Letter" will doubtless realize that the writer, who is believed to be a woman, ha sreturned the best answer of the question:

"Let the ex-Kaiser be compelled to wear some distinguishing mark, as Hester Pryne wore her "Scarlet Letter." Let him come and go as he wishes, despised by and in fear of the nemies and avoided by any who may remain friendly to him at heart. His only escape from this would be a voluntary exile, which would be, in effect, a life imprisonment, during which he would have plenty of time to commune with his conscience."

The manner in which the Creator deealt with the first murderer is suggestive. "The voice of thy brother's blood crieth unto me from the ground. And now thou art cursed from the earth, which has opened her mouth to receive thy brother's blood from thy hand; a fugitive and a vagabond (wanderer) shalt thou be in the earth. Whosoever slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him sevenfold. And the Lord set a mark upon Cain lest any finding him should kill him."

STARS AND STRIPES IN GERMANY

By the time this article appears in print the Stars and Stripes will be flying in Germany proper. Some time ago our national colors were given to the breeze in Alsace-Lorraine, provinces wrested from France forty-seven years ago by Germany's iron chancellor, and the Alsatians are overflowing with joy.

The swoops of the American eagle have been over extended areas during the past few years. Some people are living today who remember the time certain statesmen in the early history of the United States were content to allow our western boundaries to extend to the Mississippi river only. Since those days our country, like a huge giant, has stretched from the Polar regions to the tropics, has crossed the wide Pacific, acquired the Sandwich Islands and placed its foot upon the Philipines in far-away Asia.

In our day and generation the national colors are flying in despotic Germany, while Prussian militarism is virtually no more, the haughty autocrat of Kaiserism being a fugitive and a wanderer upon the earth.

The triumph of right over might is complete, and Liberty is dawning upon the earth. Napoleon chuckled at the sun of Austerlitz, but a greater than Austerlitz is now in evidence.

Woodrow Wilson, the man of the era, who has so sucessfully steered the ship of state during the past four years, is to attend the Peace Conference at Versailles. Nearly a century and a half ago our forefathers at Philadelphia proclaimed all men free and equal. This principle was received then with smiles of contempt by the crowned heads of the world, but the time has come when our Declaration of Independence is shedding beneficient rays over the entire planet.

LETTER FROM WAR WORKER
(Communicated)

While the people of Alexandria are contributing for the recreation of our men in uniform let us not forget a little camp about three miles from Alexandria where there are two companies of M. T. C., 516 and 553. These boys have worked faithful and steady for the past three months, and have almost completed the beautiful road between Alexandria and Camp Humphreys. It is one of the best roads around this section of the country. When their days' work is finished and they return to the camp, they have no recreation at all not even a music box. Now shouldn't something be done to help these young men enjoy themselves after a hard days' work with a pick and shovel? Mostly all of them are from western states, and very fine young men, and there they are camped back in the woods without even a place to entertain their friends. I really don't think the people of our city know where the camp is. The people who have seen this road that these boys have helped to build, will agree with me that some kind of amusement should be furnished these young men who are far from home and their loved ones, even if it be only a small victrola. It will not only encourage the young men in the great work they are doing, but it will be appreciated by them also, and when they return to their homes, which we trust for their sake will be soon, they can say the people of Alexandria, Va., did all in their power to help them enjoy themselves while they were doing their part towards winning the war.

Trusting the people of our city will wake up to the fact about this camp and provide some amusement for them; which I personally know will be greatly appreciated by them.

I am sincerely, "A War Worker."

KILLED IN MAIL FLIGHT

Wife Sees A. S. Adams, Washington-New York Carrier Fall.

Word was received last night of the tragic death of Allan S. Adams, aerial mail carrier between Belmont Park and Washington within sight of his wife.

Hardly well started for Belmont Park, where he was to begin a trial flight in his fighting plane carrying 450 pounds of mail, Adams crashed into a telegraph pole, instantly killing himself and breaking the arm of his mechanician, C. A. Arens. Only a moment before his wife had kissed him good-by.

The young aviator was trying to make a speed record in this flight, which was intended to prove the remarkable adaptability of America's surplus war planes into everyday commercial use. He started his flight in an L. W. F. Model G. biplane, the weight of which with its seven machine guns, fully loaded with water, gasoline, ammunition and armor plate was 4,137.5 pounds.

Adams was formerly an army aviation instructor. During the U-boat scare last summer he, with an army observer, undertook many hazardous flights over the ocean off the eastern coast of Long Island in a land reconnaissance machine.

BILL TO BAR GERMAN GOODS

Lodge Brings in Resolution to Penalize Dealers in U. S.

A protest against the sale in this country of German-made goods was registered in the Senate yesterday by the introduction of a resolution by Senator Lodge to impose a penalty upon any person who deals in such articles.

The resolution provides that the sign "Dealer in German Goods," shall be placed over the entrance to every place where goods, wares or merchandise which are in whole or in part the roduct of either Germany or Austria are sold or displayed. The same caption must be carried on all stationery and advertisements used by the dealer. The ban would not apply to goods of German manufacture now in this country.

Mystery shrouds the whereabouts of the deposed King Ludwig of Bavaria. No trace has been found as to whither he fled, according to Munich dispatches.

The state councils of Esthonia, Livonia, Courland and Oesel Island have decided to form a joint Baltic state, according to a Riga dispatch to Copenhagen.

A committee of the greatest citizens of France has been appointed to build a monument at the mouth of the Gironde, commemorating America's aid in the war. President Wilson will be invited to lay the first stone.

The armistice terms imposed upon the Turkish war forces in Mesopotamia, as officially announced last week, comprise: 1. Evacuation of the Musel Vilayet, 2. Surrender of artillery, supplies and ammunition. 3. British control of Mosuel. 4. Evacuation of the Caucasus and Northwestern Persia. 5. Turkish withdrawal from Syria and Cilicia and demobilization in a westerly direction. 6. Franco-British occupation of Alexandretta.

Three men were killed Friday in an explosion at the shell loading plant of the Du Pont Engineering Company at Penniman, Va. The explosion occurred in No. 3 lange caliber line, and besides killing three, several others were fatally hurt. The explosion took place in the room containing extruding machine, No. 2, which had just been examined by the supervisor, who had given the foreman instructions to move over to another machine pending some repairs thereto. The supervisor had barely left the room when the explosion took place. The cause of the accident is unknown.

DOOM OF PRUSSIAN RULE

The doom of the Prussian supremacy in the affairs of Germany was sounded at Munich yesterday by Kurt Eisner, two weeks ago a revolutionary journalist and now premier of the newly formed republic of Bavaria. "No state will be supreme in the new German federation," he is quoted by Berlin dispatches as saying in a proclamation to the people of Bavaria.

OUR LAND

These lines first appeared in the Southern Field and Fireside, a periodical published at Augusta, Ga., in the sixties and edited by John R. Thompson, the poet and litterateur and former editor of the Southern Literary Messenger. Written by E. Young, of Lexington, Ga., as the anthem of the Confederate States, to be sung to the air of "God Save the King," the reverence and patriotic sentiment, with the rare poetic value, make them timely now as ever voicing the true spirit that abides with our people.

O God, our only King,
To thee our hearts we bring;
Now hear us while we sing,
God bless our land!

Grant her prosperity;
Crown her with liberty;
Rule thou her destiny.
God guide our land!

With all thy bounty yields
Crown thou her harvest fields;
And when the sword she wields,
Strengthen her hand!

O'er every enemy
Give her the victory;
Thou who mad'st her, keep her—free.
God keep our land!

In art and letters still
May she increase, until
Time shall his course fulfill.
God help our land!

Her coffers fill with wealth;
Her children bless with health;
God save our commonwealth;
God save our land!

May Justice, Truth, and Love
To all her counsels move,
That in all good she prove
First of all lands.
Pattern of excellence,
Bulwark of innocence,
Freedom's secure defense—
God love our land!

L. Weisner, stationary engineer, 201 South Lee street, Alexandria, says: "My back was so weak and sore that when I bent over to pick up anything I could hardly straighten again.

Sharp pains often caught me in the small of my back and I could hardly breathe. My kidneys acted irregularly and the kidney secretions burned in passage and contained sediment. I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Warfield's Drug Store and when I had finished two boxes my back and kidneys were in good shape."

SERVICE THAT WINS THE SOLDIER HEART

Fred Lockley, Y. M. C. A., Tells of the Gratitude of the Boys at the Front.

"One of the discoveries men are making over here," Fred Lockley, of the Y. M. C. A. and of Portland, Oregon, writes from London, "is that more pleasure can be had out of giving than getting. Many a man who has spent money freely in the old days to buy pleasure is finding that he gets more pleasure over here by the spending of one's self in the service of others.

"A few months ago I went out with a fellow Y. M. C. A. secretary to hunt up out-of-the-way detachments of troops. A stable guard here, a machine gun company there, a platoon somewhere else. We carried our goods in an automoblie. We had plenty of writing paper and envelopes for free distribution, and chocolate cookies, chewing tobacco and smoking tobacco, cigarettes, razor blades, tooth paste and things of that kind for sale. American war service workers were busy everywhere. We found Salvation Army lassies making doughnuts for the boys and K. of C. secretaries giving help. Books furnished by the American Library Association were to be seen on all sides.

"Hearing firing at a distance, we drove down the road and found a score or so of men at machine gun practice. The officer gave the men half an hour recess to buy goods.

"At another place we came in sight of a lieutenant drilling a platoon. I said to the lieutenant: 'How soon before you dismiss the company? We have Y. M. C. A. goods for sale.'

"He said: 'Right now. Sergeant, dismiss the company.'

"And ten seconds later the company was in line waiting to buy goods from our traveling 'Y.' Grateful is no name for it. The men can't do enough to show their gratitude.'

Why You Should Give Twice What You Did Before

The government has fixed the sum needed for the care of the men in the service at $170,500,000.

Unless Americans give twice as much as ever before our soldiers, sailors and marines in 1919 may not enjoy their

MERCY MUNITIONS NEEDED IN TRENCHES

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, Fighting Author, Makes Stirring Appeal for Y. W. C. A.

Lieut. Coningsby Dawson, who wrote "Carry On," says of the war work which the Y. W. C. A. is doing: "You at home cannot fight with your lives, but you can fight with your mercy. The Y. W. C. A. is offering you just this chance. It garrisons the women's support trenches, which lie behind the men's. It asks you to supply them with munitions of mercy that they may be passed on to us. We need such supplies badly. Give generously that we may the sooner defeat the Hun."

What Lieut. Dawson says of the Y. W. C. A. he might have said of all the national organizations which are coming together for the biggest financial campaign that organizations have ever headed. All the $170,500,000 to be raised by the seven great national organizations the week of November 11 will be used to garrison and supply the support trenches behind the lines. They are the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the National Catholic War Council, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association, War Camps Community Service and Salvation Army.

American girls in various uniforms mingle strangely with picturesque Brittany costumes in France. The American Y. W. C. A. has a hostess house in Brittany where the Signal Corps women live and a hut where the nurses spend their free time. Both these centers are fitted with many of the comforts and conventences of home.

"At a tea given at the nurses' hut one Saturday afternoon," writes Miss Mabel Warner, of Salina, Kansas, Y. W. C. A. worker there, "there was an odd gathering—one admiral, a bishop, a Presbyterian minister, a Roman Catholic priest, a doctor, an ensign, one civilian and myself."

First Victory Boy's Work.

"Say, I'm wise to you, all right," a Western Union messenger boy whispered to one of the directors of the United War Work Campaign in the New York headquarters. The director's desk had only just been moved in and the work of the big drive had hardly begun.

"I'm onto your stunt," the boy went on as he swung a grimy fist over the desk; "you're goin' to give us fellows that ain't old enough to go to war a chance to earn an' give to back up a fighter an' help win the war. Listen; I'm in on this."

The crumpled $5 bill he dropped on the desk made him the first of "a million boys behind a million fighters" who are to be lined up as Victory Boys during the week of the drive.

There will be a division of Victory Girls, too, and every boy and every girl enrolled will have to earn every dollar he or she gives to the war work fund.

ON TRIUMPHANT MARCH

The British Second and Fourth armies began a triumphant forward march yesterday in regular battle order, patrols leading, all ready for a scrap at a moment's notice. In the wake of the troops huge columns of wagons loaded with supplies rumble along. Bands are playing and the troops are wildly cheered and showered with flowers by thousands of civilians lined up along the road. The houses and streets are beflagged and in many places the troops pass through arches of roses. The Belgian King will probably enter Brussels Tuesday at the head of his troops. It is learned that Burgomaster Max, who was arrested by the Germans early in the war, returned to the Belgian capital Friday and was greeted with wild enthusiasm.

KAISER MAY REAPPEAR

London, Nov. 18.—The former German Kaiser may seek to return to Germany because of the disturbances in Holland, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today, quoting the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin.

The dispatch added that the Potsdam Council of Soldiers and Workmen may permit the Kaiser to do so.

There is no confirmation of this report.

Paris, Nov. 18.—The Berlin Tageblatt declares that Wilhelm has not abdicated, explaining that he only fled from the country.

The newspaper points out that the act of abdication was not published.

Friedrich Wilhelm, former crown prince of Prussia, and his wife, former Crown Princess Cecilie, have been interned at Swalmen castle, Holland, it is learned.

An American airman landed at Cologne, the big German fortified city on the Rhine Thursday.

Somebody's Dollars Will Do It—
I Wonder if They'll Be Yours

By Bruce Barton

I WILL tell you what will happen some night this winter in France. Some night when its cold and dark. There will be a rustling through the front line trench, where our boys stand guard. And a heavy ladened Secretary will make his way along.

In his hands will be great steaming pots: in his pocket chocolate and cigarettes.

From one man to another he will go, passing a cup full of hot coffee to hands that tremble with the cold; bringing the comfort of a bit of sweet and a smoke.

Men will hail him cheerily, slapping him on the back; and when he has gone things will be a little easier in that trench because he has passed that way.

How much will it cost to make that trip, do you suppose? Counting the pittance that the Secretary is paid, and the cost of the chocolate and the cigarettes and all?

Five dollars? Twenty-five dollars? I do not know.

But whether it is five dollars or twenty-five, I'd like to think that it is my five or twenty-five—wouldn't you? That some night when it's cold and lonesome, my money and yours might send a Secretary out along that front line trench. Let's make up our minds that we are going to pay for a score of those trips. A score of the nights this winter shall be our nights —nights when the boys greet joyously the chocolate and cigarettes that our money provided; and are happier because our representative has passed.
